I. CHAPTER SPOTLIGHT:

- Raymond (Wildcat Station) / Knowles – Madera County
- Post office was opened in 1886 when the town was called "Wildcat Station" renamed Raymond when the San Joaquin Valley and Yosemite Railroads reached the town.
- Was the main tourist hub for Yosemite National Park from 1886 until 1907.
- Terminus for the Southern Pacific Railroad from 1886 to the 1940's.
- Raymond was the main freight and commerce center the San Joaquin Valley and surrounding foothills.
- You can travel the same route taken to Yosemite as John Muir and President Roosevelt took along Stagecoach Road and get a feeling how early travels felt on their way to the park.
